

On-Site Training

Protect your software investment and have your staff trained on location.

We send a highly qualified instructor to your location to help you and your staff become proficient ProfitFab users. The instructor will discuss ahead of time the company-specific goals you would like to see accomplished during the training process. Custom lessons will be created to fit your company's unique needs.

Benefits of On-Site Training

Corporations choose to train on-site due to affordability, staff retention, and flexible scheduling.

- Customized training
- Lower training costs
- Consistent learning experience
- Lower employee downtime
- Protect your software investment

Corporation Benefits

The maximum number of employees will be trained in the minimal amount of time for one flat daily instructor fee. With onsite training, there are no per-participant fees or travel fees required for each employee who needs to be trained.

- Maintain productivity with flexible, customized course scheduling
- Significantly reduce training expenses by training groups of employees all at once
- Tailor the course material to fulfill exact needs
- Eliminate employee travel expenses

Employee Benefits

Employees trained in a familiar work environment retain information more efficiently than those trying to familiarize themselves with new surroundings.

- Courses can be planned around individual and department schedules.
- Employees have the same learning experience and can share knowledge.
- Company-specific, relevant examples ensure your project's success.
- Employees immediately utilize newly acquired skills in their familiar, hands-on work place.
- Get the maximum number of employees trained in the minimal amount of time for one flat fee.
- No per participant fee.
- Training creates a sense of job satisfaction, raises morale, lowers absenteeism, and encourages loyalty.
